The big beauty chorus clever people. The big beauty chorus is one of the extraordinary features of the engagement here. In addition to the musical comedies, which change daily, there will be a big program of feature pictures each afternoon, starting at 2 p. m. and at 7 p. m. each avening.

Monday's feature will be The Brass Bullet, with Juanita Hangen and Jack Mulhalt. The story is taken from the great book of Pleasure Island, by Frank F. Adams.

BREED THIITRE.

Those who enjoyed Frank Keenan in the two Pathe offerings, More Trouble and Loaded Dice, have a treat and a big surprise in store for them when they behold him in The Bells. Which will be shown at the Breed theatre today and Tuesday. He plays the derer, made famous by the late Henry Irving. It is a vivid masterpiece performance and was first shown at the Rishto theatre. New York and stamped by the critics as one of the greatest acreen productions. Pictorially the story is endowed with the best that acreen technique and the most skifful direction could give it. Mae Marsh will also be seen in The Beloved Traffer, an adaptation of the novel of the same name by Fred I. Packard. In this photoplay Miss Marsh becomes the guiding star of the man she loves, inspiring him to do his ulmost and saving him from the danger which surtained him. She is in fact, his beacon. This is capitally brought out in this drama, of the sesconet and through it all the simple heartedness of the heroine shine forth to guide her erring lover away from the choice of decention.
